DIG IN @ HOME

Week of April 19, 2020

THE STORY

The Apostle Paul is preaching late at night. A young man named Eutychus /'ju:ɪkəs/ probably in his teens, is seated in a window. The place is packed with people wanting to hear. Paul preaches for a really long time. The room is warm and stuffy. Eutychus falls asleep and falls out the window—three stories down—to his death! What a tragedy. What a commotion. What a disruption to the preaching. But Paul, through God's power, brings him back to life. What a miracle!

THE POINT

God is miraculous,
and he works through us.

1. In what city did this lesson take place? (HINT: It starts with a "T")
2. Describe the setting for the lesson about Eutychus: Where was he? Why was he there? Who else was there? What time was it?
3. Why might Eutychus, a teen, have positioned himself by a window?
4. Why did Eutychus fall out of the window?
5. What happened to Eutychus when he fell three stories?
6. How do we know Eutychus was really dead and not just knocked out? (HINT: What occupation did the Apostle Luke have?)
7. Why did Paul tell the people, "Don't be alarmed. [Don't worry.]"?
8. Who really "saved the day"? FILL IN: _____ with the power of _____.
9. Had you been there, what would you have felt about the miracle?
10. Have you ever fallen asleep or gotten bored at church? Explain.
11. What could you do to keep more "awake" at church?
12. God does miraculous and amazing things through others. How did this lesson prove that to be true?

Through the Week

- Hang up a reminder to watch for times God wants to work through you. You might hang an exclamation point or a drawing of Eutychus on a window near your door or in your car.
- Whenever you go anywhere, look at the reminder and ask God to help you listen to his direction.
- When you feel like God wants to do something through you, do it! Remember, it doesn't have to be bringing a dead man back to life; it might be a simple wave or an encouraging word that changes someone's day.
- Each day at dinner, talk with your family about how God worked through you that day.
