ST. PAUL'S NEWS

I Know You...

"I know you!" Is that good news or bad news?

It can be frightening to think that Jesus knows everything about you. He knows the doubts and fears, the nagging discontent, the unholy desires. The psalmist confesses, "You know when I sit and when I rise; you perceive my thoughts from afar... Before a word is on my tongue, you know it completely" (Psalm 139:2,4).

There are no secrets we can keep from Jesus. "I know you!" Frightening!

There are also no surprises for Jesus. "I know you!" That is good news!

Jesus knew everything about you before he laid down his life for you. "Christ died for the ungodly" (Romans 5:6). There is no sin that surprises him. There is no failure on your part that he had not foreseen. Still, he loved you and died for you.

"I know you!" That is the good news of the Good Shepherd Psalm. Not only does he know our sins and weaknesses in advance, he knows our needs and our fears and our hopes.

Join us over the next three weeks as we study the words of King David in Psalm 23. The Good Shepherd who laid down his life for you and then took it up again on Easter wants to assure you, "I know you."

April 11 - Psalm 23:1-3 – "I Know Your Discontent"

April 18 – Psalm 23:4 – "I Know Your Fears"

April 25 – Psalm 23:5-6 – "I Know Your Desires"
