October 24, 2021	The Book of Daniel	Daniel, a young Judean prince, was taken captive to Babylon where he served Nebuchadnezzar, the destroyer of Jerusalem. Later Daniel served Cyrus the Persian who sent the Judean exiles back home. Daniel's book is written in Hebrew and Aramaic, the language of diplomacy. The book is a beacon of hope for believers who awaited the Messiah.	Rev. Dr. John Lawrenz is retired and served most recently as the President of the Asia Lutheran Seminary in Hong Kong, China

December 12, 2021	Beloved Christmas Songs: More than Lovely Melodies	The Christmas season is filled with the beloved melodies of carols and songs. Humming the tunes or singing the carols is a wonderful part of the Christmas celebration. However, there is much more to these songs than lovely tunes and familiar verses. Let's together explore the history, culture, and scriptural foundations for some familiar and not quite so familiar Christmas songs. We will celebrate that we can sing songs of faith and joy from hearts of faith and joy.	Mr. Ned Goede is retired principal, teacher, and choir director at Wisconsin Lutheran High School

March 6, 2022	Esther: Born for Her Time	On its surface, the account of Esther is a narrative of a beautiful woman's rise to influence one of history's most powerful rulers. But at its heart, the story is about God's impeccable timing, his redemptive power, and how he shapes historical events to conform to his promises and grace. In using Esther, God was able to save his people from genocide and preserve his promise for the future.	Rev. James Aderman is a retired WELS pastor. He has authored several books including the one on which this course is based: Esther: Born for Her Time
